This week's news...

World Book—7th March

Yesterday was fantastic, with the school being taken over by lots of Pinocchios, Harry Potters, princesses, Fantastic Mr Foxes, Dorotheys, Alice in Wonderlands just to name a few! The children made an incredible effort with their costumes!

Across the school, children enjoyed a morning of activities including making book crowns, book review posters, bunting for their book corners and watching webinars from famous authors and illustrators. Then in the afternoon, we enjoyed a movie from one of our favourite books, The Cat in the Hat by Dr Seuss.

Children even got to enjoy a special World Book Day lunch which was absolutely delicious.

World Book Day Art Competition

The school Council had a really tricky task of deciding who the 3 winners of the art competition would be. Well done to all those who worked hard and entered. After much deliberation they chose:

- Orain A —Y6

"Orain created a lovely canvas of Coraline using lots of different materials. Because it was 3D, it really stood out," - Poppy.

- Lilly H —Y3

"Lilly put lots of time and effort into her Billionaire Boy art work. It was very different to everything else created," Stephen.

- Harlie W—N

"Harlie's Gruffalo art was really great! She has put a lot of effort into her work and it is nice to see the family worked together on it," Leighton.
