Strengths

- I like the increased presence on social media, allows me to get information quickly and first hand rather than relying on the children.
- As always, we are happy that we chose Roby Park for our children.
- The staff are genuinely passionate about the pupils' progress and welfare.
- Thank you for all that you do in what is a very demanding job.
- I am happy with everything at the school and my child is very happy too.
- Early years teachers are amazing. Thank you for helping my child settle in to school.
- All of my children are happy at the school and if there are any issues, they are always dealt with efficiently and appropriately.
- I am very confident with my child being in this school and I am very happy overall.
- It is lovely to see the positive changes in the school. My child loves coming to school.
- I am very pleased with how my child's learning is coming along.
- We have never had any problems with the school in all the years our four children have gone here. Thank you Roby Park.
- Both my daughters enjoyed their time here at Roby Park. From a personal point of view, I feel I have had a good relationship with all the staff and I feel staff are approachable if I did have any issues.
- I am really pleased with how well my child has settled into school due to the wonderful work of the staff. He has become more confident and enjoys school.
- The school is evolving and children and parents are excited by the changes. Roby Park is friendly, supportive and a great environment for children to learn and thrive in.
- A lovely school! My child is happy here and he is coming on brilliantly. I would recommend!
- My child has now settled down and is feeling happier here.
- My son really enjoys coming to school every day. He comes home with a smile!
- We are very pleased with the school and my child's progress.
